

Tipping Bucket Rain Collector

Product Images

Short Description

Spectrum self-emptying, tipping bucket is exceptionally accurate, freeze-resistant and reliable.

Description

Self-emptying, tipping bucket design is exceptionally accurate, freeze-resistant and reliable.
Meets the guidelines of the World Meteorological Organization.

Additional Information

Brand	Spectrum Technologies
Explanation	Measures rainfall 1/100th inch increments. Meets the guidelines of the World Meteorological Organisation. Note: WatchDog rain collectors and SpecWare software can be programmed to record rainfall in either metric (mm) units or U.S. (in).
Compatibility	Click here to view the complete WatchDog Product Line to ensure this sensor is compatible with your logger or station.
Ideal For	Agronomy
Installation	Jack connection into WatchDog logger or station.
Specification	Accuracy is +/- 2%.