

Spectrum WatchDog Alarm Output Module - Trigger External Device based on a Sensor Reading

Product Images

Short Description

Trigger external device based on a sensor reading. For Spectrum stations.

Description

Install an Alarm Output Module in your WatchDog Weather Station and program it to trigger external response devices under specified weather/soil conditions. The possibilities are numerous; activate an irrigation system, thermostat, fan, or more!

For 2000 Series Weather Stations only.

Additional Information

Brand	Spectrum Technologies
Explanation	Install an Alarm Output Module in your WatchDog Weather Station and program it to trigger external response devices under specified weather conditions. The possibilities are numerous; activate an irrigation system, thermostat, fan, or more!
Compatibility	Click here to view the complete WatchDog Product Line to ensure this sensor is compatible with your model.
Ideal For	Agronomy
Specification	1 amp AC/DC maximum switching current. Motors and other high-powered equipment will require electrical relays.